BAROLO GALLINOTTO 2007

The 2007 Barolo Vigna Gallinotto offers up plenty of dark red fruit with notable vibrancy and freshness. Clean, mineral notes frame the long, energetic finish. Anticipated maturity: 2012-2019

BAROLO GANCIA 2007

The 2007 Barolo Vigna Gancia is rather reticent at first, but then fills out nicely. Dried herbs, berries, mint and crushed rocks are woven together in a perfumed, mid-weight fabric. The Gancia shows terrific richness and freshness, not to mention considerable harmony. Flowers, mint and anise add the final layers of complexity to the beautifully articulated finish. This is a gorgeous Barolo from Molino. Anticipated maturity: 2014-2022.

BAROLO VIGNA CONCA 2007

The 2007 Barolo Vigna Conca is the most complete of these new releases. The sensual, open personality of the vintage comes to life in the glass, as explosive layers of dark cherries, plums, sweet spices and bitter chocolate flow onto the palate with tons of grace. All of the elements come together beautifully in this complete, engaging and utterly delicious Barolo from Molino.

Anticipated maturity: 2014-2022.
