SCORE BAROLO 2007

James Suckling – JamesSuckling.com

Mauro Molino Barolo, 2007

Soft and fruity, with lovely silky tannins and a ripe and fruity finish. Balanced and delicious. Why wait?

90 Points, James Suckling

Mauro Molino Gallinotto Barolo, 2007

Aromas of ripe blackberries and licorice and spices. Jumps out of the glass. Full and juicy, with a spicy, berry and light vanilla character. Chewy tannins. Loads of fruit. Soft tannins. Better in 2015.

92 Points, James Suckling

Mauro Molino Vigna Gancia Barolo, 2007

Love the berry and chocolate character on the nose and palate. Full and velvety, with a juicy, fruity aftertaste. Very well done here. Try it after 2013.

92 Points, James Suckling

Mauro Molino Vigna Conca Barolo, 2007

Lot of plum and orange peel character on the nose. Full body, with a solid core of fruit and chewy tannins. Tight and racy, with a focused and pretty structure. Give it three to four years.

93 Points, James Suckling
